

Working at

SENZ

SENZ is starting to become a global hit, from New York to London and Tokyo! People love our 100 km/h umbrellas, international design awards have been won and we are working hard to realize our sky high ambitions. But we've only just begun, and opportunities are everywhere! Therefore, we are looking for enthusiastic students who would like to perform their internship in the Design department of a dynamic company like ours.

Are you interested and ready to take the challenge?
