

SENZ is starting to become a global hit, from New York to London and Tokyo! People love our 100 km/h umbrellas, international design awards are being won, and we are working hard to realize our sky high ambitions. But we've only just begun, and opportunities are everywhere!

Therefore, we are looking for a student or graduate to strengthen the SENZ marketing department.

Are you that hungry marketing student with a hands-on mentality? Motivated to assist with remarkable marketing campaigns? Do you want to make a difference and build a global brand? Then here's your chance.....

Your activities:

- Assist with brand management activities to activate SENZ with our target audience
- Be in charge of information gathering- , business planning - and reporting activities to assist decision making
- Brand guardianship on the internet
- Explore new marketing opportunities
- Project related marketing services and operational activities

Your profile:

- You are driven and enthusiastic, motivated to work independently
- You have affinity with SENZ
- You are energetic, creative, ambitious, original and you have a sense of humor
- You possess good analytical skills, you are numerate and commercially aware
- You possess good communication skills (speech and writing) in Dutch and English
- Your computer skills are very good [word, excel, PowerPoint]
- You are available for a fulltime internship
